HE SAID HE

WAS GONNA RUN

OVER THE TA

GOSH, LOOKIT HIM

BENNY

WELL DAG NAB

HIM IF HE AINT

A REAL BIRDMAN

By AHERN

BALMY BENNY AS A FLITTING BIRDMAN, BENNY IS A SICK CANARY.

WOW! LOOKIT

THAT GOOF BENNY

IN-THAT TRICKY SCOUT PLANE

AMERICA HAS GAINED LEAD

United States Supreme in greatly to increase our commerce with the great republic of South Argentina Trade, Holland Says, executive relation with the late Phil D. Armour, of Chicago, went to Argentina some twenty years ago with intent to purchase or lease large cat- he been able to speak only the Engintent to purchase or lease large cattle ranches so that the impending danger to our beef supply might be overcome by the raising of cattle in Argentina and the shipping of the carcasses to the United States, he found there a country which had comparatively small trade relations with the United States.

Former Travel Hardships. Valparaiso, was summoned to the United States some twenty years ago he discovered that the speedlest way to make the journey was, first, by taking the railroad which surmounts the Andes Mountains, then riding by mule back about twenty miles until the boundary of Argentina was reached, where it was possible to take the newly constructed transcontinental railroad 450 miles in length. At Buenos Aires he was able to take a stearniship bound for Southampton. England. He arrived at that port in time to take an English steamer which was within a few hours to sall for the United States. By that long and roundabout way Mr. Eyre was able to reach New York at least ten days sooner than he would have been able to do had he traveled from Chili to Panama. crossed the Panama Isthmus by railroad, and then taken to country will never be disloded from that position."

An Extraordinary Change.

In 1917 Argentina bought in the United States and imported commodition over $133,000,000. This was $50,000,000 more than Argentina bought in Great For the products of Great Britain, although before the war Argentina for the products of Great Britain and Germany exceeding us in the United States stood no more than third, Great Britain and Germany exceeding us in the United States bought in Argentina commodities of the money value of a story of the money value of a story of the money value of a story of the money value of the products of the money value of a story of the story of the money value of a story of the money value of a story of the money value of a story of the money of the story of the story of the money of the story of the money of the story of the rival in New York Mr. Eyre said that rival in New York Mr. Eyre said that while the opportunities for a large that while the opportunities for a large that which France maintained with United States were very great and while we were importing hides and other material from that country, sending almost nothing back, nevertheless, as long as it required a cross continent railway journey and then a steamship passage to England, thence by English steamer to the United by English steamer to the United States, it would not be possible for this country to gain any considerable trade with Argentina.

America Captures Trade. The war has made many changes, not the least important of which is the fact officially reported that at hast the Unite. States has gained the pressige that goes with the rank of first place among the nations in selling American commodities to Ar-gentina. The amount of our sales and the trade with Argentina would be greater if more ships were availa-ble, but the steps will be ready for commerce as we can command with Argentina after the war is over, and it is the kelief of those who are familiar with the conditions that we will be able to maintain and even America.

That is the view of Ernest H.
Wands, who during the administration of President Taft was confiden-When Patrick Anderson Valentine, who was long associated in important sexecutive relation with the late Phil speaks Spanish, and that enabled comparatively small trade relations with the United States.

The enterprise which Mr. Valentine undertook would of itself not have greatly increased these trade relations, although he was persuaded that if American manufacturers realized the opportunity in Argentina and if only a reasonable amount of shipping could be secured we could gain some parts of the trade which Germany and Great Britain possessed.

first year of President Wilson's first administration. Later he visited Argentina and although his mission was of a diplomatic nature, yet he was impressed with the fact that the following opportunities for increased trade with Argentina. Every one of these parts of the trade which Germany and Great Britain possessed. ton that "in 1917 the lead of the United States has become so firmly established that those who are fa-When Gerald Eyre, one of the part-ners of William R. Grace & Co., and the manager of the company house in Argentina are convinced that this Valparaiso, was summoned to the country will never be dislodged from United States some twenty years ago that position."

able to reach New York at least tend days sooner than he would have been able to do had he traveled from Chili to Panama. crossed the Panama Isthmus by railroad, and then taken the steamer for New York. Upon his arin our purchases of Argentina commodities, and our trade was double

LIEUT. FAPNSWORTH DIES IN AIR BATTLE

Washington Aviator Falls Behind Own Lines, Says Cousin.

SERGEANT MITCHELL REPORTED WOUNDED

GOOD NIGHT!

THERE HE GOES

KHEW IT

I KNEW IT

15

Son of Washington Pastor Named in Casualty List.

Heroes of July Advance Awarded Service Cross

Own Lines, Says Cousin.

The parents of Lieut. Thomas H. Harsworth, who live at 1126 East Capitol street, have learned that their son died on the field of battle. He is maned in the casualty lists published today as no sing in action, but we skening, persistent cough, which is threatening you will be an action the first line in his like over in France's side of the first line in his like over in France's side his father. John Farmsworth and prince, CALCERIS to rid yourself of the sweet of the season belief in the same battle, who saw him fall and the same battle, who saw him fall and lines, CALCERIS have given much cases. Affecting the same battle, who saw him fall in the same battle, who saw him fall in the same battle, who saw him fall and lines, CALCERIS have given much cases. Affecting the same battle, who saw him fall in the same battle, who saw Rescued Men from Gas Area. First Lieut. Harry R. Howe, 101st First Lieut. Harry R, Howe, 101st Engineers.—For extraordinary heroism in ation in the Bois de Lacroisette, France, July 14, 1918. After being badly burned on the left hand

by the explosion of a mustard ras shell, Lieut. Howe declined an opportunity to be relieved, and worked for more than an hour under a heavy has and high explosive shell bomhardment, getting his men out of bardment, gotting his men out of the area of concentrated gas. Unable to use his left hand, he remained

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your Bladder troubles you.

DIZY, NERVOUS SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

SPELLS

When you wake up with backache and duil misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen with the seen water forward to drive them back cache and duil misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms they seen with the seen water forward to drive them back one of his comrades was killed, but rivate Ross, with two other soldiers, when shipers were working in a railroad station and captured ther machine guns. Later, the same day, when shipers were working in a railroad station and captured ther machine guns. Later, the same day, when shipers were working in a railroad station and captured ther machine guns to the form and to forward to drive them back. One of his comrades was killed, but rivate Ross, with two others soldiers, when shipers were working in a railroad station and captured ther machine guns to the format for the same and took up his position with his sound. When a shell struck his position, severely wounding a comrade and half burying bim, the gun and sales so water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys and leaves the same mission and successfully accommander. Home address, Hockstein little was reliable. The proposition with a region field through violen Jad Salts is a life saver for regu-lar meet eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delight-ful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

In Casualty List.

Sergt. Harry D. Mitchell, son of Dr.

H. D. Mitchell, pastor of the Metropolitan Memorial Methodist Episcopai Church. John Marshall place and C street has been wounded in France.

Distinguished Servic Crosses have on duty during the July offensive. been awarded to the following officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after heroism in ation at Trugny, France, but their names:

Distinguished Servic Crosses have on duty during the July offensive. Howard have been awarded to the following officers and soldiers for the acts of extraordinary heroism described after heroism in ation at Trugny, France, but their names:

regiment had been seriously reduced by losses, he took command of a large number of the remaining troops, disposed them in effective positions, walking up and down the lines under constant fire from the enemy and by his example of coolness and bravery inspired his men to hold the positions they had gained. Home address, lay Depot, Albermarle County, Va.

First Sergt. Stallard Thrower, Company I, Sixteenth Infantry.—For extraordinary herofsm in action near Soissons, France, July 21, 1918. After all of his officers had been killed or wounded he assumed command of the company and with exceptional bravery and courage kept continually pressing on and engasing the enemy. Home address, Parksville, Ky.

Rescued Men from Gas Ares.

Drove Ambulance While Wounded.

Wagoner Clifford R. Haskins. Company B, 101st Machine Gun Battalion.—For extraordinary heroism divising the machine to the dressing station and continued the work of extraordinary heroism company and with exceptional bravery and courage kept continually pressing on and engasing the enemy. Home address, Parksville, Ky.

Rescued Men from Gas Ares.

ed by machine-gun bullets. Wagoner ed by machine-gun bullets. Wagoner Hampson courageously continued his duty of evacuating the wounded until exhausted from loss of blood. Home address. Waterbury. Conn. Private Robert A. Rhodes, Company M. 103d Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 20 and 22, 1918. East of Belleau Woods he continually carried messages under heavy machine-gune fire while acting as a runner. On July 22, near Epieds, he crossed an open gap swept by machine-gun fire in order to deliver an important message, and later was a voluntary member of a patrol which rescued wounded under fire from advanced positions. of a patrol which rescued wounded under fire from advanced positions. Home address, St. Joseph. Mo.

Fearless in Aid to Wounded. Private Charles G. Brownville, Medical Department, 103d Infantry—For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau, France, July 20 and 22, 1918. On July 20, 1918, and again on July 22, 1918, he was conspicuous for his unfailing assistance to wounded

102d Infantry—For extraordinary heroism in action near Chateau Thierry, France, July 23, 1918. After seeing three runners shot down while trying to cross an open field through violent machine-gun fire, to establish liaison with a regiment 500 hundred yards away on his left, Corp. Casey undertook the same mission and successfully accomplished it. Home address Fair-complished it. Home address, Fair-field, Conn.

First Lieut. Robert O. Blood. Medical Corps, 103d Infantry-For extraordinary heroism in action near Bouresches, France, July 20-23, 1918. Lieut. Blood remained with his battalion during the entire "SAFETY FIRST" advance. working untiringly under heavy enemy fire at all times, su-perintending the evacuation of the perintending the evacuation of the wounded and caring for them in the most dangerous and exposed positions. On July 22 he established his dressing station in an advanced position that was constantly under shell fire, and many times left his station to go into the front lines to treat the wounded.

lines to treat the wounded.

Capt. Thomas F. Foley, 101st Infantry—For repeated acts of extraordinary heroism in action near Vaux. France, July 15 to 22, 1918. Throughout the four days of the advance Capt. Foley commanded and led his battallon with exceptional bravery and judgment, thereby inspiring his men. When strong resistance was encountered, he personally went forward and recomnoitered the terrain under heavy machine-gun and sniper fire, and on July 15 and again on July 22 he personally led his battalion in successful attacks. Home address, successful attacks. Home address Worcester, Mass.

Inspired His Men to Advance.

First Lieut. Henry A. Riacke, 102d

Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Bouresches, France, July 20, 1918, When the advance of his company was temporerily head up by machine run fire in front of Souresches, Lleut, Riacke went ahead

Bouresches, Lieut, Riacke went ahead alone and although hit three times by machine gun bullets, he continued to urge his men forward and by his example of fearlessness and grit inspired them to successful attack. Home address, Meriden, Conn.

First Lieut, John R. Foegal, 192d Infantry.—For extructionary heroism in action near Vaux, France, July 20, 1918. When his company was held.

1918. When his company was held up by a machine gun, Lieut. Feegal went ahead, under fire, alone, and killed the maching gun operator with his pistol, thereby enabling his com-pany to continue the advance. Home address, Meridan, Conn. First Lieut. W. J. Blythe, 194th In-killed or captured twelve of the en emy. Home address, Methuf, Mars.

Killed Machine-Gun Crew.

Second Lieut. Julius W. Toelken

4th Infantry-For extraordinary he position from which he could fire, and

Second Lieut, Harry M. Noel, 198d

Infantry-For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belleau Wood. France, July 20, 1918. Discovering a serman machine-gun nest, which was

olsm in action

VICTORY is certain

f you will lend Uncle Sam all the Cash you can possibly spare.

o help Our Boys

Over there

Right the wrong

You can do your bit over here.

Invest in 4th Liberty Loan Bonds

Space Donated by RIDGWAY'S TEA (Safe-Tea First)

fantry.-For extraordinary heroism in action east of Belicau, France, July 21, 1918. Lieut. Blythe, with two enother platoon commanders had been killed or wounded, and advanced with them to the company's objective and held it. Home address, St. Louis, Mo. Sergt. Charles B. Johnson, Jr., Battery A. 101st Field Artillery—For extraordinary heroism in action north of Chateau Thierry, France, July 19. listed men, charged a machine gun nest, captured two machine guns, and killed or captured twelve of the en-France, July 20, 1918. When the advance of his platoon was checked by enemy machine gun fire Lieut. Toelken crawled forward alone to a exploding in it and the crew was or-dered to leave, Sergt. Johnson re-mained, put out three fires in the dump, and at erward, under heavy killed three of the machine-gun crew, after which, with his platoon, he captured the gun and turned it on the foe. Home address, Springfield. re, searched for and brought woundelter. Home address, Con-

Carried Weunded Comrade. Corp. Ernest T. Siebert, 103 Am-Sanitary Train.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Trugny, France, July 2. 1918. Corp. Siebert voluntarily rescued a wounded soldier who was lying on a shell-swept road by carrying him 200 yards on his back Al-German machine-gun nest, which was inficiting severe damage upon his battalion, Lieut. Noel led twelve men to the right flank east of the nest and charged it up a steep hill, under fire from other guns. He and his men wiped out this center of resistance and made possible the advance of his company. Although wounded himmand of large numbers of men of the company, after his ceptain and series. Sergt. Joseph W. Casey, Company at Cannes.

sergt. Charles B. Johnson, for exercity A. 10 at Field Artillery—For extraordinary heroism in action north of Chateau Thierry, France, July 19, 1918. While his battery position was under shell fire and its ammunition dump had been hit and shells were symboling in it and the crew was organized by the companies of the companies o handed, and killed them all. address, Lawrence, Mass.

Sergt. John L. Clabby, Company F 10ist Infantry.—For extraordinary heroism in action near Epieds France, July 23, 1918. During the advance by his platoon upon ma-chine-gun nests in Trugny Woods Sergt. Clabby observed a German

WRIGLEYS

We will win this war-

Nothing else really matters until we do!

The Flavor Lasts

A WAR-TIME REQUEST:

Please Consult the Telephone Directory Before Calling "Information"

"INFORMATION" is called over 5,500 times daily in Washington alone for numbers that can be found in the TELEPHONE DIRECTORY. Such calls greatly reduce operating efficiency at the Information Bureaus.

Much additional equipment and many more operators are thus required than would be needed if the directories were used as much as they should be.

In order that we may satisfactorily meet the difficulties due to war conditions, and conserve our resources for use in essential war work, we are obliged to request our patrons to consult the directory for telephone numbers before asking "Information" for them.

To assist in bringing this about, our "Information" operators, when answering calls for numbers appearing in the directory, will request the calling parties to look in the Telephone Book for the numbers.

Will you kindly co-operate with us in this necessary war economy?

> Always look in the Telephone Book before you ask "Information" for a number.

Buy Liberty Bonds to Your Utmost.

